

About CHINAnUSA.com

Business Foundation

We understand that technology "revolutionizes" whereas business process "evolves" gradually. Especially for international trade, in addition to different degrees of Internet readiness in different countries, trading partners have different adoption and/or resistance to technologies. A "revolutionary" trading platform has to be supported by all parties involved (buyers, sellers, service providers) who have equal or similar adoption of technologies. That simply is not the case today or in the near future.

Our Mission

To facilitate an "evolving" international trade community by integrating the best of breed, online and offline services and solutions. CHINAnUSA.com's business model focuses on "connecting supply and demand between China and USA."

Our Goal

By providing a complete trading solution to the cross-border trade community between China and USA, we are simplifying the trading complexities. We strongly encourage partnership of all buyers and sellers working with us to achieve significant reductions in the burdens and costs associated with inefficient traditional trading practice. The cost savings and efficiency improvement will benefit all participants in the cross-border trade community between China and USA.

Strategic Alliance

We believe in industry collaboration! Partnership with dedicated and leading companies from all service sectors in the trade process is critical to achieve our goal of connecting supply and demand.

Our strategic alliances include product certification services, credit checking companies, financial institutions, payment and settlement services, insurance companies, quality assurance services, shippers and freight forwarders. We also partner with local Chambers of Commerce, trade organizations and government agencies.
